Disclaimer

UTD Scuba Diving is proud to present these UTD SF2 CCR DIVER online course materials as a supplement to proper education and in-water training by a certified UTD SF2 CCR instructor.

This material is NOT to be used as a substitute for formal SCUBA instruction in the use of the SF2 CCR Rebreather. It is our intent to provide these materials as pre-class, during class, and post-class reference only.

All of us at UTD Scuba Diving strongly encourage you to seek qualified instruction and evaluation which can only be accomplished within a formal class setting. Any questions regarding the skills or the material within can be clarified by your UTD SF2 CCR instructor.

However you are always welcome to contact us at info@utdscubadiving.com.
